

Dear Depositors

We are thankful for the extended support and co-operation from your side to the Neesa leisure limited (NLL). As you are aware fix deposits accepted by NLL is governed by the provisions of the companies Act. Recently enacted provisions under section 73 to 76 of companies Act 2013 entitled company to extend maturity of the deposits accepted before April 1, 2014 and interest thereon for the period up to three year in case of difficulty and under intimation to RoC. We wish to inform all the depositors that company had to extend the redemption and interest payments for the further period as prescribed in the aforesaid provisions due to financial difficulties owing to market condition. In case of early resolution of ongoing financial difficulties company promises to consider earlier discharge of its obligation to depositors. For further information you are requested to visit our website www.neesaleisure.com

Inconvenience is regretted.
